Goes to show what a concious lot us bushwalkers are. 2 of the group did after aborting the walk early when Hilary suffered a knee injury. We met the rest here on the 5th. It was a welcome change from the tents, nice view from the balcony. Nice and quiet. Good to see the farmers are allowing Bushwalkers to walk all over their farm. Keep up the good work! I will love to come back and spend a couple of days here. The only thing wrong is there is no matches left.	Yes

	my long person	We arrived yesterday (pm); having now completed Cape Jervis to Logan's Gap. We'll be back - Good little camping spot. Consideration for 1 night's accommodation was - repaired southern window - replaced perspex & sealed with duct tape. Oiled door opening mechanism. Kept fire at back of fireplace as it draws straight up. - smokey otherwise. Chopped & replaced wood, fixed one head back onto handle.

Trail Re-route weekend - Burra Branch - Peter van Beausichem

Peter Stopp, Trevor Sims, Dave Stoddart (Clare Lions Members)

Arthur Simpson, Peter van Beausichem, Jennie & Leo Abbott

Brendon Weber, Tim, Hugh & Kate Greenhill. Six of us stayed overnight here at the Hut. The fire was great but it does need something to stop it smoking. The re-route work has gone well and the new section passes thru' some great country - particularly Gordon Nowerses. Arthur S. made new toasting fork. Haven't quite finished the work. Two more stiles to build. Great weekend and great company. We will be back.

15/7/07	John & Jenny Lewts	Drove up from Adelaide today, planning to do 3 "catch-up" walks on Hysen trail, near Bura. (We missed this section when our walking group End to End 2 Hysen tracks came through last year.) Others in the group said Huppertz looked like a nice place to stay and had good access. Started walking late today ^{3:00 pm} from Busch Rd & made it only to Werner/Rage Rd. - not Huppertz hut as planned. Drove to Huppertz Hut in dark. Hope its OK to drive across your property. Will walk from Werner/Rage to ^{Koo-owie Gap} Old Adelaide Bura Rd tomorrow, then on to Wils end on Tuesday.	Yes
16/7/07	John & Jenny Lewts	Back to hut again to stay for 2nd night, After walking from Busch/Rage Rd to Koo-owie Gap Road. PERFECT days walk, one of my favourites of the Track so far. Had lunch, by the way at Huppertz at 2pm. Thankyou to the people who maintain this hut - and to the Huppertz family. John (with bricklaying skills) says he'll be back later to fix the smoking chimney. It will take a piece of galv sheet in front of the lintel (many chimneys experience) -	Yes
17/8/7	Jean Hammond	Beautiful surprise to find such a lovely well maintained hut. Thanks it has been wet with big winds for last 2 days. My hands are frozen as I write.	DON'T SPILT STONE LENGTHEN CHIMNEY TOP. NO

FOHT. HISKEYS HOT TANK FULL. YES
- NORRATZ HOT - ONE TANK EMPTY/
MAIN PIPE FROM CUTTER CHECKED WITH RUBBISH. NEEDS INSPECTION TOO AT BOTTOM TO CLEAN OUT.
OTHER TANK FULL,
FIXED TAILGATE DOOR CATCH
- 11/10/08 Mary Cartland Great Hot, Wonderful Views. Facilities ^{Great} ^{+ 200} ^{Therms!!!} YES
- 23/10/08 Ted Warren End to Ender (heading south) Day 36. YES
Thanks to both all OK, although some maxing!
But I guess I won't meet any end-to-enders heading north this late in the gear as the trade will shortly be closing behind me. I did the Bibbiana in 2004 & met heaps of hikers, but I've only met 2 parties (of 3 & 1 respectively)
& they were doing that section north of Howler.
There definitely needs more water tanks as some sections are dangerously long between water & they may need to be topped up manually if rain is limited. I'll write to SA Govt about some constructive criticisms I have as a very experienced hiker of long distance trails. I know it's pissing but there is a "duty of care" & I believe people are being turned off this great recreation on this trail. Anyway, this hut & the other are good.
I know the FOHT are trying their best with limited resources

HUPPUTZ HUT

Welcome to this shelter along the Heysen Trail which was constructed in September/October 1989 by a group of unemployed and homeless people from the Adelaide Central Mission's, Day Centre in Adelaide..

The project was funded by the South Australian Recreation Institute and given full support by the owners of the property the Hupputz family.

The original building was a small timber framed hut built as a Kiosk at the Riverton Golf links. This building is no longer recognisable as it constituted the southern half of the present hut. Stones for the chimney were gathered off the nearby paddocks and slate for the floors came from nearby Mintara Slate quarries. The builders included, Paul Nicholas, Supervisor, Keith Hall, Lincensed builder, Leon Kirvan, Greg Lowe, Mick Winter, Ian Higgins, Jeffrey Upton Kevin Cartledge and with some slate tiling done by Claude Nicholas.

Visitors are welcome to stay for one or two nights. Please make room if others come along and replace all firewood that you use. Please leave the place in a tidier condition than when you found it.

We trust you've had a pleasant stay.
