

Morialta Centenary Picnic 8th November 11am - 3:30pm

8am & 9am Walk with the Friends of the Heysen Trail, returning for the Welcome to Country

11am Welcome to Country by Kurna Elder Lewis O'Brien

11:30am Ranger talk, find out more from one of Morialta's Rangers

12pm Learn about becoming involved in Citizen Science with Philip Roetman from the UniSA Discovery Circle

1:30pm Attend a talk on Violets and Day Tours at Morialta 1915-1950, by Geoffrey Bishop of the East Torrens Historical Society

2:00pm Live your life in a way that cares for animals, a presentation by Heather Bradley from the RSPCA

2:30pm Watch the Fort Glanville Canon re-enactment

3:00pm Bid before this time on the Historic Images of Morialta Exhibition auction

Meet animals from Cleland Wildlife park

Be amazed by the Adelaide Snake Catchers and Living with Wildlife display

Discover the exciting world of invertebrates with Bugs N Slugs

Eat food supplied by the Kiwani Club of Athelstone, the Lions Club of Athelstone, the Bean Bus and Ararat Foods

Enjoy free Face Painting and Nature Play activities

Meet the CFS Community Engagement Team

See the Campbelltown Historical Society and Tea Tree Gully Heritage Museum displays

Have a go at slacklining with the UniSA Rock Climbing Club or play on the Climbing Club of South Australia's climbing wall

Create Nature Crafts with Kate

Visit a DEWNR Fire Truck

Friends of Black Hill & Morialta Inc.

Natural Resources Adelaide and Mt Lofty Ranges

Government of South Australia
Department of Environment, Water and Natural Resources

FREE entry and activities

Ride your bike to avoid parking hassles or catch the H30 bus. Free bicycle parking.