2022

Article Submission Guidelines

Trailwalker Articles on the Heysen Trail or other trails within Australia or overseas are welcomed from members. Articles from non-members who have hiked parts of the Heysen Trail are also welcomed.

If you are planning to write an article it is suggested you contact the editor with your idea. Unexpected articles may be delayed in being published.

Deadlines: The Trailwalker is published every three months – April, August and December. The deadline for April is last Friday of February, for August is last Friday of June and for December is the last Friday of October.

Contact: The editor can be contacted by email on trailwalker@heysentrail.asn.au , or via the Friends office.

Article Lengths: As a guide, a large article of 3 to 4 pages should be no more than 2,500 words. An average size article, of 2 to 3 pages should be around 1,500 words. A 1 page article should be between 500 and 750 words. Articles should be typed, preferably in Microsoft Word, and emailed. Printed or hand written articles are not generally accepted.

Photos: To provide visual interest photos should be supplied to supplement the article. A photo which includes the author is encouraged. Photos should have captions, and be emailed. They should no more smaller than 10cm wide at 300dpi (or 1280 pixels wide). Alternatively, photos on a USB stick could be left at the Friends office. Printed photos are not generally accepted. If photos are not your own or from a friend, you may need to acknowledge the source.

Maps: For articles about multi-day hikes maps are encouraged. Maps copied from websites may be too small to be reproducible in print form - they should no more smaller than 10cm wide at 300dpi (or 1280 pixels wide). Assistance can be provided in finding or drawing suitable maps. Map sources may need to be acknowledged.
